

MAN FROM JERSEY STARTS GRAFT QUIZ; LANDS A HEADACHE

Mr. Schonbrod of Paterson Acquires Valuable Experience in Few Hours in New York.

It is a matter of police graft and corruption in New York, which he read in the newspapers, so interested Franz Schonbrod, a wealthy silk manufacturer of Paterson, N. J., that he came over to conduct a personal investigation of conditions. Magistrate House of the West Side Police Court refused to fine the silk man, but imposed a heavy penalty upon him. The Magistrate sent the investigator home with instructions to tell his wife all about the New York situation.

Schonbrod was discovered by a policeman on Thirty-seventh street, near Fifth avenue, about sunrise today in excited conversation with a negro. He accused the negro of taking $30 from him. Both were arrested. The negro said he was Alexander Baylor of No. 254 West Thirty-seventh street, a waiter.

"What were you doing in New York?" demanded Magistrate House when Schonbrod and Baylor were led before him.

"I wanted to see whether conditions in this city are really as bad as they have been reported," replied Schonbrod. "I intended to write an article for a Parisian newspaper."

"Did your wife know you were coming on such an expedition?"

"No," said Schonbrod.

"If she had," commented the Magistrate, "I doubt if you would have come."

Schonbrod drew himself up with all the dignity possible on a daisy "morning after" and responded: "Be that as it may, Your Honor, I am here, and I know more about New York this morning than I did last night."

Schonbrod then explained that, keen for information regarding naughtiness and misfeasance in office in New York, he visited three saloons and drank numerous highballs in each. In a sixth avenue saloon, he said, he met Baylor, who invited him to his apartment.

"I spent an hour with him," said Schonbrod, "and we talked about the situation in the New York Police Department. When I started to go I found I had lost $30. I went down stairs and he followed me. I called a policeman."

Schonbrod denied taking the money, which was found in Schonbrod's coat pocket at the station house.

Magistrate House released Baylor, saying there was no evidence against him.

"I have you," he said, "to hurry back to Paterson, N. J., where you belong."

long and stay there. We have enough people in this town to investigate any graft that may be going on. We do not need assistance from Paterson. Anyway, I think you probably have accumulated sufficient material for a very interesting article for the Paris newspaper."

Schonbrod, bowing low, thanked the Magistrate and departed in haste.

SUICIDE IS IDENTIFIED.

Arthur W. Yerger of Mobile, Alabama, was the man who shot himself to death in front of the Marlborough Hotel on Broadway, early yesterday morning after bidding Frances Wellington, his companion of the night, to "beat it."

The identification, according to Coroner Feinberg, was positively made by Frank C. Kelly of the Columbia-Knickerbocker Trust Company at Fifth avenue and Thirty-fourth street.

Mr. Kelly stated to the Coroner that he knew that Yerger had been in the city, and when he read the account of the suicide in The Evening World last night he was certain that it was Yerger who had blown out his brains. After viewing the body Mr. Kelly said that there was no doubt as to its identity.

Coroner Feinberg this morning notified Frank J. Yerger, a brother of the deceased, who is a lawyer in Mobile.

Vandals on Westinghouse Estate. LENOX, Mass., Aug. 22.—During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse from Franklin Park vandals have been up on the Rock Sea Lion on the lake shore on their property. The lion was a boulder formed by the wash of the water into the shape of a lion and was one of the natural curiosities of the country.

CROSS ON SIDEWALKS TRIBUTE OF PLAYMATES TO CHILD AUTO KILLED

Catherine Wood Was Returning From Store When Run Down by Machine.

The name of Catherine Wood is chalked in childish scrawl at intervals along the sidewalks near Ninth avenue and Sixteenth street to-day, and always over the name is a cross. The children of the neighborhood, who loved Catherine, have this strange way of marking the death of a playmate.

Yesterday afternoon Catherine, who was twelve years old, started on an errand for her mother. She had a dollar and after purchasing a pound of butter was returning across Ninth avenue between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets when an automobile owned and driven by John W. Parker, of No. 1537 Kruger avenue, Bronx, knocked her down and passed over her.

The driver stopped the machine after a chorus of yells went up from those who had seen the accident. Then an ambulance came and a doctor said the girl was suffering from internal injuries which might or might not be serious.

She was taken to the New York Hospital, Parker, after giving his name and address, was allowed to go.

An hour later the girl died.

"DARN THE GOVERNMENT, DARN THE SOCKS," THEY CRY.

Slogan of Minnesota Suffragists Shows They Can Keep House as Well as Vote.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 22.—In order to dissipate the impression that women who yearn to vote at real elections do not know the first elements of house-keeping, Minnesota suffragists will maintain a booth at the State Fair, where every man, whether married or single, may have his house darned. This was decided by the women yesterday, when the following war cry also was adopted:

"Darn the Government, darn the socks, That's the way to ballot box; Patch the holes in hubby's hose, March to the polls and voice our woes."

The organization has adopted the darning needle as its emblem.

Bavarian Socialists Protest. MUNICH, Aug. 22.—Herr von Voller, the Socialist member of the Bavarian Parliament, who declared the Socialists would fight in any war involving the Fatherland, was swamped to-day with letters and telegrams of protest from Socialists throughout Germany. So loud is the outcry that von Voller may resign.

Shop with a Deposit Account

It Is Simple, Efficient and Profitable

The Deposit Account System, originated by us, is an improvement in every way upon the ordinary charge account.

In opening a Deposit Account you do not have to give references. It is only necessary to deposit such a sum as you choose, whether one dollar or one thousand dollars, to cover your shopping requirements for a time. Each purchase made is charged against this sum, and an itemized monthly statement issued showing the balance on hand.

The Deposit Account checks your disbursements automatically, if you elect to limit yourself to a specific sum for the month's shopping. Furthermore, the monthly statements are in effect RECEIPTS for your purchases, whereas the ordinary charge account statements are BILLS DUE AND PAYABLE.

Four per cent. interest per annum (compounded quarterly) accrues on your balance, or unused funds.

A 2 per cent. Cash Dividend (payable December 10th yearly) is allowed as bonus on the total of your year's Deposit Account purchases.

This pyramid of profits—liberal interest on your unused deposit funds, plus a cash dividend, in addition to unquestionably "Lowest-in-the-City" prices on everything you buy, gives the greatest EFFICIENCY POSSIBLE TO EVERY DOLLAR YOU SPEND.

Only Accounts Intended for Purchasing Purpose Accepted. We Do No Banking Business.

Bedroom Furniture of Distinct Excellence

Typical Macy Savings in This Mid-Summer Sale

The glare and glare of extravagant claims as to "Values" has no place in the Macy method of merchandising Furniture, just as it has no place in our statement regarding other merchandise we gather and distribute.

There is a perfectly legitimate reason for the savings we afford our customers. Macy's buys only for cash, and sells only for cash, and Furniture manufacturers appreciate that as much as, and in many instances more than, producers in any other line of business.
